DX GALA

It must be a hip event, because the crowd at the Design Exchange's annual fall Black & White Fundraising Gala keeps getting younger. Or are we just getting older?

- 1—Inspired oversized ice chandeliers by Ice Culture Inc. worked their magic.
- 2—Cheryl Sheridan, Reptilia Zoo educator, wrangles a nine-foot Burmese python for a brave Jeanette Williams, general manager at marketing firm Onbrand Design.
- 3—Julia Rosen-Rosen, healthcare director, Brigholme Interiors Group; Frank Tan, account executive, SCI Interiors; Jennie Hobin, designer, Kasian; and Tim Au-Yeung, A&D rep, Humanscale.
- 4—Make-up artist Neil Schmidt and partner, fashion designer Lucian Matis (wearing his own pyramid-studded shirt, with Toronto elementary school teacher Misel Cimpric.

GLOBAL PARTY

Global Group held its A&D preview-cum-seasonal social at the Steam Whistle Brewery in the restored and renovated former Railway Lands roundhouse at the foot of the CN Tower. Global family-founder Feldbergs were out in force.

- 1—Janice Feldberg, lawyer at property developer Milestone Group; her mother (and wife of Saul), Toby; and Jeff Kohl, account manager, Global.
- 2—Harvey Lamb, director, business development, Global Group, with spouses Allan and Marg Skinner, president and VP at furniture dealer Office Source.
- 3—Global's Ray Townsley, senior VP, government affairs and strategic markets; Saul Feldberg, company founder and chairman; Helen Stergiou, partner, Office Shop; Saul's son, Global president and COO Joel Feldberg; and Office Shop partner Joanne Triantafyllou.

IDC/IIDA LEADERS BREAKFAST

The Regency ballroom at the Four Seasons hosted the IDC/IIDA (Interior Designers of Canada/International Interior Design Association) Leaders Breakfast. Any sleepyheads in attendance were thoroughly awakened by the risqué keynote address by Paul Lavoie, chairman of ad agency Taxi.

- 1—Building code guru and guest of honour Leszek ("Les") Muniak, founding principal, Larden Muniak Consulting, and his wife, Eva, flank interior designer Alison Logue, principal, Vitamin-D Design.
- 2—Areti Carter, senior sales rep, Knoll; Veronica Liu, designer, and Milena Milicevic, associate, IBI Group; and Greg Rapier, Knoll Group regional manager, Canada.
- 3—Theo West-Parks, president of ARIDO and of Westparks and Associates; and Canadian Interiors editor Michael Totzke.
